

2014: Employing Our Rich & Unique Adventist Heritage in Service to Others

Messages to Young People

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT SERVICE / Thursdays @ 8:00pm EST

This year, the Youth Department at Metro New York World Ministry has taken you on a journey through the rich heritage of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. You know, the weird things: dress reform, health reform, our take on music and media, dating and family, schooling, and more.

This month, we take all of these things and wrap them up into our sole mission here on earth: to prepare a people to stand in the day of judgment. So dive in and study what the Spirit of Prophecy has to say about youth and evangelism.

The selected reading is the month of August in the devotional Reflecting Christ, available in print and via EGWwritings.org.

"I long to see the youth helping one another to a higher Christian experience. We are preparing for the grand review of that day when every case shall be forever decided. In view of this solemn event, not only the youth, but all who are striving for eternal life, need to put every power of heart and mind into the work of learning

Christ's way."
